Presentations at the 2013 Conference of the British Educational Research Association 3-5 September at the University of Sussex.

Marie Huxtable, Je Kan Adler-Collins and I submitted a successful proposal for a Symposium on 'Creating Educational Theories Which Engage With Issues of Poverty' in which we are seeking to hold ourselves accountable for living as fully as possible, the values we claim to hold in our explanations of educational influence. Marie, JeKan and Jack successfully submitted individual presentations - Marie submitted two successful individual proposals. Marie and I also successfully submitted a joint proposal. Mark Potts, Steve Coombs and I successfully submitted a joint proposal.

Here are our presentations.

1) The Symposium contributions:

Je Kan Adler-Collins - Engaging with emotional poverty across cultural boundaries and differences?
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/jekanbera13sym.pdf

Marie Huxtable - How do I improve what I am doing with a living theory praxis in engaging with issues of poverty?
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/mhbera13sym.pdf

Jack Whitehead- Researching To Overcome Poverty With Action Research And Living Educational Theories
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/jwbera13sym.pdf

2) Marie Huxtable's individual papers:

a) Developing inclusive educational theory practice and provision from an educational perspective:
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/mhbera13inclusive.pdf

b) How do I contribute to improving educational theory, practice and provision through developing my living-theory-praxis?
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/mhbera132praxis.pdf

3) Jack Whitehead's individual paper: A living logic for educational research:
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/jwbera13phil010913.pdf

4) Marie Huxtable's and Jack Whitehead's joint paper: Living-educational-theories as Transformational Continuing Professional Development:
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/mhjwbera13joint.pdf

5) Mark Potts', Steve Coombs' and Jack Whitehead's joint paper: Developing Cultural Empathy And The Living Global Citizenship Agenda: The Social Role And Impact Of Technology In Supporting Global Partnerships:
http://www.actionresearch.net/writings/bera13/markstevejackbera010913.pdf

When the second individual paper by Je Kan is on the web, together with the video of the inspiring presentation I'll send you're the url. One participant who has attended many BERA conferences commended Je Kan's presentation as the best she had heard at BERA. A video presentation to look forward to.