

Ireland 2014-17

Norwich, UK 1994

New Zealand

Pip Bruce Ferguson

email: pip@fergs.org

Currently, Pip works in the Teaching Enhancement Unit, National Institute for Digital Learning, at Dublin City University. She is a member of EJOLTS and NEARI (see links below).

ARLO:

Action Research and Learning in Organisations

<https://www.linkedin.com/grp/home?gid=1806421>

Connected to:

Member of NEARI: Network Educational Action Research Ireland - LINK

Member of EJOLTS: Educational Journal of Living Theories - LINK

ALARA: Action Research, Action Learning Organisation

<http://www.alarassociation.org/>

VALUES:

Constant self-improvement via AR and living educational theory;

Commitment to social justice and equity;

Commitment to developing cultural sensitivity and valuing of diversity;

Compulsive collaborator.

Mentors/friends:

Moira Laidlaw

Jean McNiff

Eileen Diggot-Irvine

Jack Whitehead

Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt

The background image is a Koru, an unfurling tree fern which is a New Zealand symbol for new beginnings, growth, strength and peace.