

Notes for the Omnibus Conversation on the 5th June 1.15-2.05 pm in CB 4.7.

In our notes for the Omnibus Conversation of the 27th March 2014 we focused on the statements of the University's values at:

<http://www.bath.ac.uk/about/values/index.html>

“Our values

We have established ourselves as a top ten UK university with a reputation for research and teaching excellence. Our community is characterised by its culture of high achievement, enterprise and creativity.

Our values are evidenced in our commitment to:

- quality and excellence
- the highest standards of scientific and professional integrity
- freedom to challenge received wisdom
- encouraging high aspirations
- equality and diversity
- working responsibly and with respect for others
- best environmental practice”

We shall bear these values in mind as we continue to focus on Knowledge Transfer, Exchange, Exploitation and Creation.

In our conversation of the 5th June we shall explore the knowledge-transfer and knowledge-creating activities of Sonia Hutchison in her work with social work students in the University. Sonia is Chief Executive of the Carer's Centre, Bath and North East Somerset (see - <https://www.linkedin.com/pub/sonia-hutchison/3b/130/a9> ). Sonia's doctoral research is focused on the development of a living-theory of caring. To inform our conversation you could browse through Sonia's living-theory of care-giving at <http://ejolts.net/node/203> .
