

Use 'back key'
to return to living-posters homepage

UNDAR
Mongolia

MEGA
Mongolia

JACK

MARIE

RACHAEL
UK

WILLIAM

IRIS

JOY

MOIRA

GIULIA

MAIRIN

MARY

CAITRIONA

13th April hosted by Rachel Burgess in Bath UK with participants in the room and others joining through SKYPE. Each name has a link to their living-poster.

Living Theory research making a difference in communities and organisations: continuing conversations. - 13th April 2019

[Report of the 13th April 2019 gathering
hosted by Rachael Bugess in Bath](#)

ROBYN

10:00 Session One

Rachel (hosting the day) - sets the scene for the day, starts us going round with very brief buzzes (maximum of 2 minutes) and catch-ups re our research/enquiries - living-posters on screen as each person speaks.

Jack - summarise to lead us into a conversation around the theme: Living Theory research making a difference in communities and organisations: continuing conversations.

SONIA

11:00 Session Two - new SKYPE participants introduce themselves

Jack to introduce the Living Theory Wiki access from http://ejolts-wiki.mattrink.co.uk/index.php/Main_Page), leading on to conversations around extending our educational influence in communities and organisations.

MARK

12:15 – 13:00 LUNCH

13:00 Session Three - new SKYPE participants introduce themselves

Participants to identify and explore issues of personal and collective responsibility, accountability and engaging with power and equality and inequality, in trying to enhance the educational influence we have with communities and organisations.

SADRUDDIN

14:00 Session Four – new SKYPE participants introduce themselves

Distinguishing relationships between practitioner-research methodologies, Living Theory research, Action Research, Autoethnography and Narrative Enquiry and drawing insights from these methodologies and other theories in contributing to our practical enquiries.

GEITZA

15:00 Session Five

Jack - take us into a conversation around 'creating futures'. 15.10 NEARI Jack - 10-15 minutes reprise for NEARI and all of what has emerged through the day with respect to the theme of the day: Living Theory research making a difference in communities and organisations: continuing conversations, lead us into final conversation around 'creating futures' and brings the day to conclusion.

LIZ

NEARI

SWAROOP

JACKIE
Canada

JUDY

Click here to go to directory and archive

Report on the CARN study day/Pre-conference workshop on the 4thFebruary, 2016, hosted by Rachael Burgess in Bath, for the '1stGlobal Assembly for Knowledge Democracy: towards an ecology of knowledges' in Cartagena on the 16thJune 2017.