

He, who experiences the unity of life, sees his own Self in all beings and all beings in his own Self and looks on everything with an impartial eye. – Krishna Dwapayan Vyas, The Bhagavad Gita

During the beginning of my career in the Social Work Practice in an Orphanage Home while working with the Children at Risk I realized it is not the only the Rights but the Responsibilities also contributes in the Welfare and Development of the Society. I have identified one of my values of being Responsible was there in my practice during that period but was only able to realize it during my first ever Life Skill Education course. Democracy, Liberty and Equity are my other values that I strongly believe in.

I have tried putting my values in practice by working with the children of unprivileged areas of the Vadodara City and mobilizing the other stakeholders around the city to make the Child Friendly Vadodara by educating them with the child rights and responsibilities.
