I built my own research-based model of TES expertise with three types of expertise: cumulative, strategic, and collective.

I publish handbooks for language teachers and create coursebooks for teaching English to children. In my free time ☺ I travel a lot, dance, play with my two kids and always smile.

AGNIESZKA SZPLIT

I built my own expertise "in action".

My professional life has two faces: I am a teacher educator, Post-Ph.D., a researcher, and a language teacher, a language teacher trainer.

I work at The Jan Kochanowski University of Kielce, Poland.

My life and own experiences influence my understanding of teacher professionalism. I research on (1) development of teachers' professionalism and its dimensions and (2) language education (mainly primary EFL teaching)
