

Link to Living-poster homepage

Link to SKYPE Living Theory research support group

Dr. Jerome Thamsanqa Gumede
jeromegumede@hotmail.com

I am a former Herd Boy, Soccer Player, A Karateka, Karate Instructor, A Clerk, A Teacher, School Principal, Part-Time Lecturer, Retired Governance and Management Coordinator, Researcher, Minister of Eucharist, Grandfather, Husband, Biology Sub-examiner, E-Tutor and University subjects marker...

- My interests are: Teaching and learning, Research in Living Theory, Auto-Ethnography, Narrative, and Self-Study Methods.

- My central values are Ubuntu (humanity) and Inhlonipho (respect)

- My research topic for Doctoral studies is: An Auto-Ethnographic Enquiry: Critical Reflection on the Influence in the Development of a Black African Male Educator.

- My subjects of interest are: Biology, English, IsiZulu, Oral Studies, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, African Languages and Culture in Practice and Communication Dynamics in African Languages.

Research questions are:

Doctoral Thesis

- Why do I do things the way I do? What has enabled me to meet, face and resolve the challenges that I have come across in life?.

Master of Arts Dissertation

- What makes remembering of (oral or written) texts possible though they are sometimes very long?

My interests are: Teaching and learning, Research in Living Theory, Auto-Ethnography, Narrative, and Self-Study Methods.

My central values are Ubuntu (humanity) and Inhlonipho (respect)

My interests are: Teaching and learning, Research in Living Theory, Auto-Ethnography, Narrative, and Self-Study Methods.

My subjects of interest are: Biology, English, IsiZulu, Oral Studies, Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology, African Languages and Culture in Practice and Communication Dynamics in African Languages.

Research questions are:
Doctoral Thesis
Why do I do things the way I do?
What has enabled me to meet, face and resolve the challenges that I have come across in life?.

Master of Arts Dissertation
What makes remembering of (oral or written) texts possible though they are sometimes very long?