

Encouragement,
an inner glow of appreciation...

Aim: To advance the scope of self-study LT research

- * The key concepts of my inquiry:
encouragement, social interest and Gemeinschaftsgefühl
- * Living values and motivation to teach self-encouragement

ARNA Montreal Proceedings https://drive.google.com/file/d/1Vy1fCVBSOW_TlIKatXmH51I7jUNOse/view

Ollie and friends

Discovering what is useful in supervision. Evaluating practice through Rich Pictures that tap into complexity, nuance and the unexpected within the supervisory relationship.

margaret@wadsley-scot.co.uk

How do I understand and explain the dynamics of educational influence as a dialogic process of mutual improvement within the supervisory relationship?

Influences

Click here to go to living-posters
directory & archive

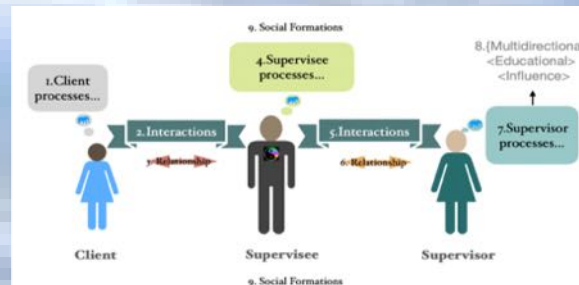

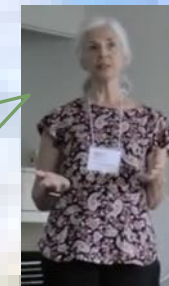

Figure 1. Diagram to Show the Relational Dynamics of Clinical Supervision

Dynamics of Influence Within the Supervisory Relationship

Working together in the spirit of
"alongsideness", supervisee and client held safely...

Discovering my living contradictions enables me to uncover areas where I need to improve my practice to become more congruent.

Sharing
knowledge
'with heart'

www.waspedwellbeing.co.uk

Breath~Body~Mind

