

Living Poster

MUANO ARNOLD NETHENGWE

muano.nethengwe@mandela.ac.za

Who am I?

My name is Muano Arnold Nethengwe. I am a BA Media, communication, and culture graduate from Nelson Mandela University. currently I work as a media and comms intern at the Hubs of Convergence, a project division of Nelson Mandela University, in Gqeberha, Eastern Cape. I aspire to become a household name within the social media space, and use my passion for social media and content creation as a way to raise awareness to the abuse & discrimination of/against LGBTQI+ teens and individuals in South Africa. My motto in life is "be who you are, regardless of what people may think of you"- i try to live my life this way everyday.

Values:

- Integrity
- Generosity
- Compassion
- Commitment
- Happiness
- Kindness
- Loyalty
- Community
- Togetherness

Research Passions & Interests

- Social Media Marketing
- Communication Science
- Social Media Activism
- Content Creation
- Media Writing
- Radio Presenting
- Journalism
- LGBTQI+ Rights
- Equality

The Essence Of Me

If I had to choose four words that describe me, I would say that I am:

- outgoing
- passionate
- liberal
- creative