

NETWORK FOR EDUCATIONAL ACTION RESEARCH IN IRELAND

NEARI seeks to create a supportive environment for practitioner researchers to engage in critical reflection and dialogue.

NEARIMeets are characterised by respectful, critical, energising, friendly and critically engaging conversations. There is no charge for becoming a member of NEARI, nor is there any qualifications necessary - except an interest in educational action research.

It is for action researchers both in Ireland and all over the world.

It welcomes people who are new to action research, as well as those who are life-long action researchers.

Face to face, online and hybrid meetings

Aims towards developing educational action research scholarship and practice as together we work towards the flourishing of humanity.
