I am passionate about life skills through drama (LSTD)

My dream is that every child in world should get the benefit of LSTD. Every child should be happy and healthy. Learning should be fun and not stressful!!!!

I believe that each and every child is special and unique. As an educationist I love to help them identify those qualities in themselves.

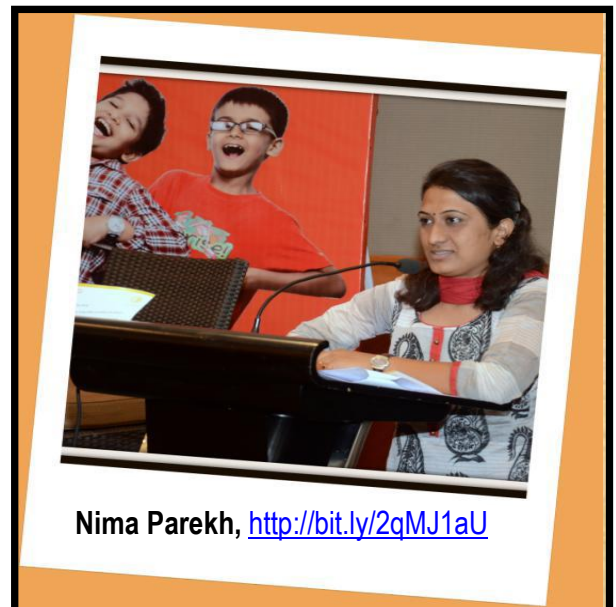

Essential elements for our dream school:

Fun, real learning, drama in education, LSTD

Happiness, harmony, love, trust, empathy

Reflect and bring the change within you and around you, teamwork, respect individual uniqueness, democracy, equality, compassion

BE YOU!
