My Identity

My name is Silindile Mazwai- born Khumalo (Mntungwa, Mzilikazi waMashobane) in Durban, Kwa-Zulu Natal. I have two siblings-I am a middle child and only girl. I was raised by my parents- mom's a teacher, dad works for one of the biggest municipalities in KZN- in a loving, safe and comfortable life. I went to an all-girls' High School and did my undergraduate studies in Cape Town (UCT). Upon completion of my studies, I moved back to KZN for a year (internship)- thereafter moved to the Eastern Cape- making this my 7th year here.

I became a mom, three-years ago to a beautiful, a highly spirited girl- who has in part- changed my outlook on life.

Always Learning, Always Unlearning, Still Growing & Still evolving.

Values & Principles

A Libra- seeks balance

- An abundance Mindset
- A long-term lens focus of the future
- Feminine Energy in approaching Life

Applying these to my role as Project Co-Ordinator at HOC:

- A drive towards collaborations within the ecosystems we operate in.
- Creating operational systems that are for long-term use & team-work approach.
- Building Trust, humanity and long-term relations.

My current motto

“Be patient with yourself. Nothing in nature blooms all year”
